

The Gift

Christmas is a time for laughter, cheer and family to gettogether and share wonderful food, laughter and love. It's also a time forgifts. This year at Carver Ranch we have been given the amazing gift ofsobriety and with just that one gift it includes unity, strength and a newunderstanding of ourselves and the wisdom to know the difference. We are soberbrothers and sisters with a common lifelong goal, to remain sober and foreverworking on our recovery. This year you may feel a longing to not be alone, but letme tell you this, "You are not alone". We all have been given the same gift andthat's to be able to live drug free and free from the chains that bind us. From all the residents at Destiny Sober Living, may 2016 be your best year yet!

From the Men at Destiny

"Do you think finding a job is more than recovery?" Resident Response: "No. Recovery is key to my happiness. A job is important because I want to make and save money, and I love to be active andproductive, but none of that matters if I cannot stay sober. - Resident J.

"You owe it to yourself to give this program a chance. I just picked up my 60 day chip and I can't tell you how much that meant to me. I want to thank Destiny Sober Living for that. - Resident Terry

Thoughts from Carver Ranch

I've been sober for 187 days. Some days it is easy and some days it is hard. But I never gave up. Don't give up on yourself and your sobriety. Never stop fighting. When you need to cry, let it out. I thank God that I was sent to Destiny at Carver Ranch. This is the longest I've been clean since I have been 15 years old. Keep your faith and fight every day for your sobriety. It's worth it.

Recovery from a mental health disorder or an addiction does not just affect the person who is struggling with these issues, it affects the whole family. Whether a person gets help through our agency or not, please pass our information along to family members. We have many resources for them. Remember to give families resources when they have a loved one who is struggling.
